

North Atlantic Salmon Farming Industry and NASCO Liaison Group

Constitution

The North Atlantic Salmon Farming Industry and NASCO Liaison Group (the “Liaison Group”) is an advisory group established to provide an international forum for liaison between the salmon farming industry in the North Atlantic and the relevant authorities responsible for the wild Atlantic salmon stocks and aquaculture on issues of mutual interest, and to make recommendations for action. The Group will work by consensus.

The Liaison Group shall comprise industry members from each North Atlantic country and representatives from each member Party of the North Atlantic Salmon Conservation Organization (NASCO).

The Liaison Group will meet on an annual basis, or at more or less frequent intervals if it so decides.

The Liaison Group shall appoint from among its members a Chairman and a Rapporteur who shall serve for a period of two years.

The office of Chairman and of Rapporteur shall be held alternately by representatives of NASCO and the North Atlantic Salmon Farming Industry.

The Secretariat of NASCO and designated representatives of the North Atlantic Salmon Farming Industry shall, following consultation, make the arrangements for the meetings of the Group and shall share the administrative responsibilities.
